

STATE OF NEW YORK

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER

Certificate of Recognition

Presented to:

SOPHIA ANGELICA NITKIN

upon receiving the Youth for Human Rights International's 2019 Presidential Volunteer Service Award for your outstanding volunteer efforts in promoting and implementing human rights education to youth throughout New York, New Jersey, and Taiwan. The Empire State is proud to join in recognizing exceptional individuals whose dedicated efforts and accomplishments have a significant impact on others. Through your remarkable commitment to multiple organizations in New York and throughout the world, you have made an extraordinary impact and have improved countless young lives. On behalf of all New Yorkers, I applaud you for your ongoing commitment to empowering our youth and strengthening the fabric of our communities, and congratulate you on this great honor from YHRI. You are helping us build a stronger, more tolerant and peaceful future for the Empire State, and we thank you. Best wishes for continued success.
